

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

JERMAIN & BRIGHTMAN,
PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

T. D. JERMAIN.....

RUFUS KING.....

Editor.

TERMS OF THE SENTINEL.—$4.00—Weekly $1.00

INvariably in Advance.

MILWAUKEE:

MONDAY MORNING, JAN'Y 18.

PAULINE DU CHENIEN IRANI.—The Courier says:—

The Dousman block on the corner of Main and Main St., was now completely finished. The plastering is quite dry, thanks to the beautiful weather we have been favored with of late.—The block is an ornament to the city, and is decidedly the finest building within its limits.

The body of man named Robert Roberts was found dead about two miles from St. Paul's tavern, at a place known as the "old castle ground."—

Drs. Wood and Mason held a post mortem examination on the body, which resulted in the jury finding a verdict that the death of the man was caused by exposure to the cold, and intoxication.

The Courier is decidedly of the opinion that, in that part of the country, as well as other localities, money is a scarce article at present, and advises certain merchants to postpone their collecting tours until spring, but if they will come, it recommends that they bring enough money with them to defray their travelling expenses.

The title of the editorials thus sketched by a Washington correspondent, as he appears in the late debate on the Neutrality question:

Mr. Stephen, of Georgia, spoke with unusual earnestness, warning off all encroachments on his right to the highest extent, as he denounced the act of Paulding as an outrage, as robbery, utterly without precedent, and of course, as a dangerous precedent, if such an act should be committed with impunity, and no legal warranty of justice and right, and his convictions of duty, but the re-torture of Walker and his wife, in particular, that caused him to say, "It is well before this country was created, that—

During the time he was there was such profound silence in the hall that you could have heard a whisper. The unbroken look of the speaker, his shrill, so voice, impassioned manner, pale, deathly hue, and flashing eye, gave great effect to his bold and startling pro-

pects.

BROCK JAHN.—Two prisoners escaped from the Columbia Co. jail, in Portage City, on Thursday afternoon the 11th last. One of them named Alfred Underhill, was confined for the murder of his brother. It is described as follows: "About 32 years ago, five feet eleven inches high, light complexioned, and brown hair." The other is a young man named Harrington. Both left Portage together on small black horses. Two hundred dollars reward is offered for their delivery to the Sheriff of Columbia Co., or confinement in jail in the State.

THE GOVERNOR'S PRIVATE SECRETARY.—The appointment of William H. Watson, Esq., as Private Secretary to the Governor, is universally commended by the press of our State, as well as by outsiders. The North Iowa Times says:

W. H. Watson, formerly of the Milwaukee Sentinel, is appointed Private Secretary to Governor Woolsey of Wisconsin. We hope we may impress with the ability and intelligence which are distinguishing characteristics of the man.—If his Secretarial duties are filled as ably as were his editorial, the State will be honored in his selection.

THE REASON WHY.—It is now stated that the mild tone adopted by the President in regard to Paulding, may be explained by the fact that the Commanders in possession of the private information and other evidence obtained on the coast, of the duplicity of the government, and it fails to provoke him to a publication of it.

DICKERY WELL IN THE WORLD.—The Louisville (Ky.) Courier says that the artesian well of the Mississ. Dupont, of that city, has reached the depth of 1,900 feet. It adds:—"This is the deepest well known to us in the world. The next in depth is the well at Grenoble, near Paris, which is 1,800 feet. Louisville has, therefore, the deepest well in the world and the tallest at the top in the U. S., the Cross on the St. Louis Cathedral being 289 feet high, while the summit of the Trinity, New York, is only 204 feet."

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.—General Piobert, of the Artillery, and a member of the Institute, has made a discovery by which the explosion of gunpowder in magazines may be prevented. It consists simply of mixing the gunpowder with coal dust. When the gunpowder is required for use, it is only necessary to sift it; the coal dust, such as pitch or tar, and the rest is exploded with common gunpowder.

GOV. RAILDALE'S PRIVATE SECRETARY.—We are pleased to learn that Mr. R. R. Baldwin is appointed Private Secretary to Gov. W. W. Wood, of Wisconsin. We hope we may impress with the ability and intelligence which are distinguishing characteristics of the man.—If his Secretarial duties are filled as ably as were his editorial, the State will be honored in his selection.

ACCIDENT AT PRESCOTT.—The Present (Prescott Co.) Transcript of 10th Oct., says:

A SHOT FROM THE GOVERNMENT OF THIS COUNTRY IS ADMIRABLE BY THE PEOPLE, FOR THE PEOPLE, OR BY A PRINCIPLE CLASS, FOR A PRIVILEGED CLASS! IN THE CONVENTION IT IS FAIR WHAT IT IS CLAIMED TO BE, A BOND AND GUARANTY OF SLAVERY; OR WHAT THE FATHERS OF THE REPUBLIC, DIED FOR, IS FAIRLY CLAIMED AS A BOND AND GUARANTY OF SLAVERY. OUT OF EIGHTH AND SLAVERY, EVERY WHERE OUTSIDE OF THIS FREE STATE, OR LIBERTY EVER YETHE OUT-SIDE OF THE SLAVE STATE!"

GOV. RANDALL'S PRIVATE SECRETARY.—We are pleased to learn that Mr. R. R. Baldwin is appointed Private Secretary to Gov. W. W. Wood, of Wisconsin. We hope we may impress with the ability and intelligence which are distinguishing characteristics of the man.—If his Secretarial duties are filled as ably as were his editorial, the State will be honored in his selection.

MILWAUKEE SENTINEL.—Gov. King has disclosed of his interest in the Sentinel to Messrs. Jermain & Brightman, his late partners. Gen. K. will continue as editor. The Sentinel is one of the best newspapers in the west. We have long been in touch with its daily issue and its leading men. We get news by telegraph from every other source.—Mineral Point Tribune.

AMERICAN RAILROADS.—The Railroad Journal has an elaborate article on American Railroads, from which we learn that the total number of miles opened the past year has been 1,020.—

The number of miles opened since 1848, is 21,000; since 1850, nearly 19,000. The total number of miles in operation in the United States at the present time, is 26,210. The total cost in round numbers, is $90,000,000. Adding to the sum the amount expended on unfinished roads the total amount expended in the United States up to this point will reach nearly $1,000,000,000. The average cost of the roads in operation, is about $3,000 per mile.

Total annual receipts of the roads will probably reach $120,000,000. The net receipts will probably reach, at least, five per cent on their entire cost.

GOOD PAPERS.—We publish in another column the advertisements of the Milwaukee Sentinel and the Milwaukee Journal—two good papers as there are printed in the State. After subscribing and paying for either the Sentinel or the Journal, "The Good and Journal," nothing like keeping passed in the events of these stirring times.—The Cross Republican.

GOOD ADVICE.—Subscribe for your local paper by all means—and pay for it too, and that done, why subscribe for the Sentinel—if it please you.

THE KILBOURNS' SENTINEL.

IN SEWARE, Jan. 14.

Mr. Groulich introduced the memorial of Byron Kilbourn as follows:

To the Honorable the Senate and Assembly of the State of Wisconsin.

The memorial of the undersigned, a citizen of the State, respectfully represents, that for a number of years he has had the design of establishing an institution of learning in the higher branches of life would be of great benefit to the State.

I believe it to be physically true, that there is as much native talent among the children of the poorer classes, as among those of the rich, and perhaps more; and whatever tends to the elevation of those classes by, lessening the burdens of their parents, and encouraging them, must tend vastly to benefit the whole community, by infusing into it an active principle in its organization, a larger intellectual element.

To promote and insure the accomplishment of this design, I have, for several years past, had the following provision incorporated in my will, viz:

Seventy thousand dollars of my estate, shall vest in the City of Milwaukee in trust for the following purposes, and to be used and expended for the education and maintenance of poor persons, selected as hereinafter provided, that is to say: The Common Council shall appoint four Trustees whose terms of service shall be respectively one, two, three and four years, and at the expiration of each term, the election of a new trustee shall be made by the voters of the circuit.

HARBOR WAREHOUSE.—This structure built by Messrs. Quaries & Kimball, is now about completed, and the proprietors are receiving grain for storage, at the same rates charged at Milwaukee.

The body of man named Robert Roberts was found dead about two miles from St. Paul's tavern, at a place known as the "old castle ground."—

Drs. Wood and Mason held a post mortem examination on the body, which resulted in the jury finding a verdict that the death of the man was caused by exposure to the cold, and intoxication.

The Courier is decidedly of the opinion that, in that part of the country, as well as other localities, money is a scarce article at present, and advises certain merchants to postpone their collecting tours until spring, but if they will come, it recommends that they bring enough money with them to defray their travelling expenses.

THE title of the editorials thus sketched

by a Washington correspondent, as he appears in the late debate on the Neutrality question:

Mr. Stephen, of Georgia, spoke with unusual earnestness, warning off all encroachments on his right to the highest extent, as he denounced the act of Paulding as an outrage, as robbery, utterly without precedent, and of course, as a dangerous precedent, if such an act should be committed with impunity, and no legal warranty of justice and right, and his convictions of duty, but the re-torture of Walker and his wife, in particular, that caused him to say, "It is well before this country was created, that—

During the time he was there was such profound silence in the hall that you could have heard a whisper. The unbroken look of the speaker, his shrill, so voice, impassioned manner, pale, deathly hue, and flashing eye, gave great effect to his bold and startling pro-

pects.

PAULINE DU CHENIEN IRANI.—The Courier says:—

The Dousman block on the corner of Main and Main St., was now completely finished. The plastering is quite dry, thanks to the beautiful weather we have been favored with of late.—The block is an ornament to the city, and is decidedly the finest building within its limits.

The body of man named Robert Roberts was found dead about two miles from St. Paul's tavern, at a place known as the "old castle ground."—

Drs. Wood and Mason held a post mortem examination on the body, which resulted in the jury finding a verdict that the death of the man was caused by exposure to the cold, and intoxication.

The Courier is decidedly of the opinion that, in that part of the country, as well as other localities, money is a scarce article at present, and advises certain merchants to postpone their collecting tours until spring, but if they will come, it recommends that they bring enough money with them to defray their travelling expenses.

THE title of the editorials thus sketched

by a Washington correspondent, as he appears in the late debate on the Neutrality question:

Mr. Stephen, of Georgia, spoke with unusual earnestness, warning off all encroachments on his right to the highest extent, as he denounced the act of Paulding as an outrage, as robbery, utterly without precedent, and of course, as a dangerous precedent, if such an act should be committed with impunity, and no legal warranty of justice and right, and his convictions of duty, but the re-torture of Walker and his wife, in particular, that caused him to say, "It is well before this country was created, that—

During the time he was there was such profound silence in the hall that you could have heard a whisper. The unbroken look of the speaker, his shrill, so voice, impassioned manner, pale, deathly hue, and flashing eye, gave great effect to his bold and startling pro-

pects.

PAULINE DU CHENIEN IRANI.—The Courier says:—

The Dousman block on the corner of Main and Main St., was now completely finished. The plastering is quite dry, thanks to the beautiful weather we have been favored with of late.—The block is an ornament to the city, and is decidedly the finest building within its limits.

The body of man named Robert Roberts was found dead about two miles from St. Paul's tavern, at a place known as the "old castle ground."—

Drs. Wood and Mason held a post mortem examination on the body, which resulted in the jury finding a verdict that the death of the man was caused by exposure to the cold, and intoxication.

The Courier is decidedly of the opinion that, in that part of the country, as well as other localities, money is a scarce article at present, and advises certain merchants to postpone their collecting tours until spring, but if they will come, it recommends that they bring enough money with them to defray their travelling expenses.

THE title of the editorials thus sketched

by a Washington correspondent, as he appears in the late debate on the Neutrality question:

Mr. Stephen, of Georgia, spoke with unusual earnestness, warning off all encroachments on his right to the highest extent, as he denounced the act of Paulding as an outrage, as robbery, utterly without precedent, and of course, as a dangerous precedent, if such an act should be committed with impunity, and no legal warranty of justice and right, and his convictions of duty, but the re-torture of Walker and his wife, in particular, that caused him to say, "It is well before this country was created, that—

During the time he was there was such profound silence in the hall that you could have heard a whisper. The unbroken look of the speaker, his shrill, so voice, impassioned manner, pale, deathly hue, and flashing eye, gave great effect to his bold and startling pro-

pects.

PAULINE DU CHENIEN IRANI.—The Courier says:—

The Dousman block on the corner of Main and Main St., was now completely finished. The plastering is quite dry, thanks to the beautiful weather we have been favored with of late.—The block is an ornament to the city, and is decidedly the finest building within its limits.

The body of man named Robert Roberts was found dead about two miles from St. Paul's tavern, at a place known as the "old castle ground."—

Drs. Wood and Mason held a post mortem examination on the body, which resulted in the jury finding a verdict that the death of the man was caused by exposure to the cold, and intoxication.

The Courier is decidedly of the opinion that, in that part of the country, as well as other localities, money is a scarce article at present, and advises certain merchants to postpone their collecting tours until spring, but if they will come, it recommends that they bring enough money with them to defray their travelling expenses.

THE title of the editorials thus sketched

by a Washington correspondent, as he appears in the late debate on the Neutrality question:

Mr. Stephen, of Georgia, spoke with unusual earnestness, warning off all encroachments on his right to the highest extent, as he denounced the act of Paulding as an outrage, as robbery, utterly without precedent, and of course, as a dangerous precedent, if such an act should be committed with impunity, and no legal warranty of justice and right, and his convictions of duty, but the re-torture of Walker and his wife, in particular, that caused him to say, "It is well before this country was created, that—

During the time he was there was such profound silence in the hall that you could have heard a whisper. The unbroken look of the speaker, his shrill, so voice, impassioned manner, pale, deathly hue, and flashing eye, gave great effect to his bold and startling pro-

pects.

PAULINE DU CHENIEN IRANI.—The Courier says:—

The Dousman block on the corner of Main and Main St., was now completely finished. The plastering is quite dry, thanks to the beautiful weather we have been favored with of late.—The block is an ornament to the city, and is decidedly the finest building within its limits.

The body of man named Robert Roberts was found dead about two miles from St. Paul's tavern, at a place known as the "old castle ground."—

Drs. Wood and Mason held a post mortem examination on the body, which resulted in the jury finding a verdict that the death of the man was caused by exposure to the cold, and intoxication.

The Courier is decidedly of the opinion that, in that part of the country, as well as other localities, money is a scarce article at present, and advises certain merchants to postpone their collecting tours until spring, but if they will come, it recommends that they bring enough money with them to defray their travelling expenses.

THE title of the editorials thus sketched

by a Washington correspondent, as he appears in the late debate on the Neutrality question:

Mr. Stephen, of Georgia, spoke with unusual earnestness, warning off all encroachments on his right to the highest extent, as he denounced the act of Paulding as an outrage, as robbery, utterly without precedent, and of course, as a dangerous precedent, if such an act should be committed with impunity, and no legal warranty of justice and right, and his convictions of duty, but the re-torture of Walker and his wife, in particular, that caused him to say, "It is well before this country was created, that—

During the time he was there was such profound silence in the hall that you could have heard a whisper. The unbroken look of the speaker, his shrill, so voice, impassioned manner, pale, deathly hue, and flashing eye, gave great effect to his bold and startling pro-

pects.

PAULINE DU CHENIEN IRANI.—The Courier says:—

The Dousman block on the corner of Main and Main St., was now completely finished. The plastering is quite dry, thanks to the beautiful weather we have been favored with of late.—The block is an ornament to the city, and is decidedly the finest building within its limits.

The body of man named Robert Roberts was found dead about two miles from St. Paul's tavern, at a place known as the "old castle ground."—

Drs. Wood and Mason held a post mortem examination on the body, which resulted in the jury finding a verdict that the death of the man was caused by exposure to the cold, and intoxication.

The Courier is decidedly of the opinion that, in that part of the country, as well as other localities, money is a scarce article at present, and advises certain merchants to postpone their collecting tours until spring, but if they will come, it recommends that they bring enough money with them to defray their travelling expenses.

THE title of the editorials thus sketched

by a Washington correspondent, as he appears in the late debate on the Neutrality question:

Mr. Stephen, of Georgia, spoke with unusual earnestness, warning off all encroachments on his right to the highest extent, as he denounced the act of Paulding as an outrage, as robbery, utterly without precedent, and of course, as a dangerous precedent, if such an act should be committed with impunity, and no legal warranty of justice and right, and his convictions of duty, but the re-torture of Walker and his wife, in particular, that caused him to say, "It is well before this country was created, that—

